A new one day course for people who want to gain an understanding into what PBS is and how it works in practice.

The aims of this course provides an introduction to the principles and main components of Positive Behaviour Support (PBS). It aims to give direct contact staff, families and others a broad overview of what PBS is and how they can contribute to an organisational approach within Derbyshire. This training is mapped to the PBS competence framework (PBS Academy 2015) at direct contact level.
