

Participants will also have the opportunity to attend 2 of the following workshops

WORKSHOP 1 Responding to Incidents – County Lines What do mean by this? What can we do? How do we identify students involved? What is the role of the school?	WORKSHOP 2 Universal Education – PSHE & Cross curricular How have the ‘new’ resources been developed? Can a tutor led PSE use them? Can they be used on enrichment/Health days? How does it work across the curriculum? Prudence Barnes
WORKSHOP 3 Responding to Incidents – Safeguarding, Roles & Responsibilities What are the thresholds? What support and advice is available to staff? Where can parents as well as students be signposted/referred too? Debbie Peacock	WORKSHOP 4 Targeted Education – Working together What do interventions look like? What are individual service roles & responsibilities? How do we work together? What if we are not happy? Behaviour Support, CGL, New Service, Space 4 U

There are limited places for this FREE conference so to secure a place please email

Alison.hill3@derbyshire.gov.uk

Don't hesitate to get in touch for further details