- If the member of staff has been removed from regulated activity e.g., Ofsted regulated childcare (either through instruction or their own choosing) because they pose a risk of harm or have harmed a child or vulnerable adult you must make a referral to DBS.
- An employer commits an offence if they employ a person who is disqualified, except if they can prove that they did not know and had no reasonable grounds for believing that the person they employed was disqualified (Disqualification Under the Childcare Act p6 section 3)

Suitable people - Disqualification (pages 13-15 of audit)	Things to consider and discuss:
Are you aware that, under Section 75 of the Childcare Act 2006, you or a childcare worker may become disqualified from registration?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What procedures are in place to regularly monitor the ongoing staff suitability? • How and when do you make any assistants aware of your provisions' code of conduct? Are they aware from the beginning of their employment and when do you revisit this? • What would cause yourself or and assistant to become disqualified from registration? How do you share this information and with whom?
Childminders may find guidance about disqualification under the Childcare Act 2006 helpful Disqualification under the Childcare Act 2006 - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have you accessed and read this guidance document? Are there any actions to implement from this? • Is the 'Disqualification under the Childcare Act 2006' guidance on display or easily accessible for all assistants? How do you know that any assistants are aware of this document? • How do you know which staff are or are not covered by this legislation?
Do you ensure that in the event of disqualification, you do not continue as an early years provider – nor be directly concerned in the management of such provision?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How do you ensure that you are compliant with all relevant legislation relating to disqualification?
Do you ensure where a person is disqualified, that you do not employ that person in connection with early years provision?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What measures do you have in place to ensure that you do not employ a disqualified person in connection with your early years provision? • How do you ensure any assistants are aware that they should inform you if there are any convictions, cautions, court orders, reprimands or warnings that may affect their suitability to work with children at recruitment or during their employment? • What procedures will you follow to ensure the safety of children should you become aware of a person's unsuitability? • What action would you take to ensure the safety of children if you became aware of relevant information that may lead to disqualification?

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are you aware of how to inform the DBS, Ofsted and the LADO of any information which may lead to disqualification? How would you ensure this is done within the timeframe?
If you are a childminder, childminder assistant or childcare practitioner on domestic premises are you aware you may also be disqualified because you live in the same household as another person who is disqualified or because you live in the same household where a disqualified person is employed?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What do you understand by ‘disqualification by association’? • How do you ensure that your childminding assistants understand what ‘disqualification by association’ means and how do they keep you informed of any changes? • Is it made clear when childminders or assistants sign a declaration of suitability that this includes disqualification by association? How? • As a childminder, childminder assistant or childcare provider on domestic premises, what robust procedures do you have in place for asking your staff questions about convictions, cautions, court orders, reprimands, or warnings of someone living or working in their household in order to establish whether the member of staff should be disqualified by association?
