NB: Failure to comply with these requirements is an offence.

Changes that must be notified to Ofsted or the relevant childminder agency (CMA) (page 55 of audit)	Things to consider and discuss:
Do you ensure you notify Ofsted or the CMA with which you are registered of any change: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • in the address of the premises (and seek approval to operate from those premises where appropriate)? • to the premises which may affect the space available to children and the quality of childcare available to them? • in the name or address of the childminder, or the childminder’s other contact information? • In persons aged 16 or older living or working on any domestic premises from which childminding is provided? • to the persons caring for children on any premises where childminding is provided? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Who is your ‘Nominated Individual’? (May not be applicable if you are a ‘Sole Owner’) • Who is able to inform Ofsted of changes? • What is the current way to contact Ofsted in order to notify them of changes? • How do you ensure that Ofsted always have up to date information regarding your ‘Nominated Individual’ in order that other changes may be notified to Ofsted. If the Nominated person leaves your organisation, do you ensure Ofsted is informed prior to them leaving? • As a childminder, what robust systems are in place to ensure you inform Ofsted or the CMA with which you are registered of any changes in your family home e.g., a new baby or new partner, adult children leaving home or anyone reaching the age of 16 in your home? • Do you keep an evidence trail to prove that you have informed Ofsted of the changes and the date you did so? How long will you retain these records?

Are you aware a person is not considered to be working on the premises if none of their work is done in the part of the premises in which children are cared for, or if they do not work on the premises at times when children are there? Do you ensure you notify Ofsted or the CMA with which you are registered of any change: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to any proposal to change the hours during which childcare is provided? or to provide overnight care? any significant event which is likely to affect the suitability of the childminder to look after them? Any significant event which is likely to affect the suitability of any person who cares for, is in regular contact with, children on the premises on which childminding is provided?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Would you inform Ofsted of temporary changes to the hours you are open? E.g., temporary emergency closures; INSET days during normal opening hours. If you provide overnight care, are you aware of the additional requirements to meet children’s welfare and safeguarding needs? How do you ensure you inform Ofsted or the CMA with which you are registered that you are providing overnight care? What would Ofsted consider to be a ‘significant event’?
